

History/Geography

With around 4,000 hectares of vines in the heart of the Languedoc, the Foncalieu co-operative has been running since 1967 with as many as 650 winegrowers working together to produce exceptional wines. Since 2007, the co-operative has been committed to sustainable development and use winemaking methods that promote the quality of grapes whilst respecting the environment.

Tasting Note

Pale yellow with hints of green, an aromatic nose of white stone fruit and light blossom leads to a fresh palate of zesty grapefruit and citrus.

Food Pairings

Best served as an apertif or with light fish dishes.

Producer

Foncalieu

Country

France

Region

Languedoc

Variety

Ugni Blanc
Colombard

Typical ABV

10.5 %

Oak

None