Background

Château d'Arche, based in Barsac, has a good 3 hectare site in Sauternes situated on a clay-gravel rise and surrounded by the great growths. Their Perle de Arché is a rich, concentrated, golden-coloured Sauternes that has notes of honey, dried apricots and almonds with some tangy acidity to add balance.

Winemaking

Grapes are pressed using a pneumatic press. Vinification occurs in stainless steel vats in small batches. Wine is then aged in barrels before bottling.

Tasting & Pairing

Rich and concentrated wine. Notes of honey and dried fruit, but with a good acidity which provides freshness and minerality.

Pairs easily with a wide range of after dinner dishes; cheese, puddings and biscotti-style biscuits would work well.
