Producer

Domaine André Aubert is one of the holdings of the industrious Aubert brothers, who also own Domaine Autrand and Domaine le Grand Retour. Claude, the eldest, and Alain and Yves, the twins, took over the family business in 1981 and have expanded it gradually ever since, with the addition of new properties as well as major improvements and modernisations. Today, Aurélien Aubert and his wife Stephanie manage the domaine.

Climate, viticulture, winemaking

Situated south of the department of Drôme, the vineyard now comprises of 40 hectares. Using methods that underpin the family's focus on flavour extraction, body and structure. The winery now sees stainless steel technology to create wines in a fresh, modern style. The resulting wine is estate-bottled.

Tasting Notes

Rich red berry aromas alongside characters of smoky game and a gentle hint of mushroom. Brilliant depth of flavour with bright red fruit on the palate, green capsicum and a spicy tone.
